All previous sessions are listed below and they can be accessed to review the questions and material of that session. In an active session, new questions will automatically display on your screen (if allowed by instructor) and you will be able to use the response options at the bottom of the screen. Questions are screen captured and displayed for those using smartphones or devices. Once you've selected your answer, the professor will be able to indicate the correct answer and you can view your results. Those students with a paid REEF account using clickers in class can revisit the sessions at a later time.
